KANYASHREE PRAKALPA

Mamata Banarjee, the honorable chief minister of west Bengal has launched the noble project “Kanya Shree”. The scheme is widely known and praised for its noble object. The scheme has two parts- first one time payment and an annual scholarship. The scheme will be available to families with an annual income of Rs. 1,20,000. The scholarship of Rs. 500/- is likely to be paid to girls from class-Viii-XII as girls usually drop out at this level. Once they pass the H.S examination. They are given one time grant of Rs.37500/- when they are 18 years old. This project has been launched to educate the girl child. As the families of the girl are poor and they do not sent their daughter to the school. This scheme helps them to continue their study. It increases the number of educated girl in our state. It has also a great advantage. It helps to stop the child marriage. In rural area, many girls are victim to child marriage due to poverty. In poor families, they continue their study to get Rs. 37500/-. This project was honored by the United Nations on a competition. The Kanyashree Project stood the first position in that competition. 14th August is celebrated as “Kanyashree Day”.
