

Paragraph on CHILD LABOUR in English with PDF

CHILD LABOUR

India is the greatest democratic country in the world. But the biggest problem of this country is population. Within a few years India will exceed the population of China. This population explosion has given birth to many problems like poverty, unemployment, child labour, and etc. the practice of child labour doing work for earning bread is called child labour. This is a serious problem in the developing countries of the world. Children are being employed in mainly agriculture, small industries, hotels and tea-stall. child labour presents a pitiable picture of social-economic condition of our country. Many talented children can not present their talent because of poverty. They are deprived of education. They have no choice of their own. They are forced to do these hard works and sometimes risky job otherwise entire family will face starvation. We can not stop child labour. But we can improve the working condition of the child labours. The working hours must be shortened. They must not be put to any hard or risky job.
